WELCOME TO YOUR PERSONAL ASTROLOGICAL LIFE CALENDAR!

Congratulations on your choice! You have chosen to join a select group of people—those who use the rhythms of the stars to enhance their timing and gain greater happiness in life. Yes, it's true . . . Astrology will allow you to make the right choices in life and achieve complete contentment and all that you desire for you and your family.

Astrology will help you to reach the peak of your own potential, steering you in the right direction to attain better self-understanding, satisfaction and achievement of your personal goals. Join hundreds of others who have found what's missing in their life, summoned the courage to go out and meet people, or took that first step to becoming a millionaire. Now you are a part of that elite crowd. You've chosen to let Astrology help you turn your life into what you want it to be!

Astrology is an incredibly ancient art. Humanity has used the heavens as clock, calendar, and compass for tens of thousands of years. Almost every major civilization has used the insights of astrology. From ancient rulers in Mesopotamia, China, Egypt and India—to Shakespeare—to Diana, Princess of Wales—to today's world leaders, including some members of European royal families and Sheik Yamani (oil minister of Saudi Arabia), an understanding of the planets and the signs of the zodiac has led to a richer, more satisfying life.

Here at Astro Communications Services, we have distilled the complicated patterns of the cosmos into a totally personalized calendar—just for you. By using the information in your very own calendar, you can make wiser choices, understand yourself and your loved ones better, move beyond unconscious blockages and inhibitions, and live a better life.

How Can You Use Your Planetary Patterns To Improve Your Life?

In Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar, we have interpreted the planetary positions that seem incomprehensible to most people. Top astrologers have extracted those parts that you can most easily use which tell you how to improve your life on a daily basis.

One aspect of astrology examines the relationship between the location of planets in your birth chart to the location of the planets today. Your Life Calendar examines trends based on planetary interactions for you on a daily, monthly and annual basis. You will see that some fast moving planets have only a passing significance on your life, whilst others move more slowly and have a longer lasting impression. These Trends will show you in easy to understand terms how each applies to your relationships, your family, your money. You will see the most important planets—Sun, Mercury, Venus and Mars—appearing frequently and we explain in straight forward terms how you can apply this information in specific areas of your life.

Astrology is not clairvoyancy, but a reliable ancient system which shows you how to make the best choices in life and how you can find and achieve your highest potentials. This precise astrological reading will not give you predictions, rather it will give you additional information you can use to make better choices, just like the weatherman gives you information you use when you choose your activities for the day.

Looking at what happens day-to-day, your personal calendar reveals tens of thousands of possibilities and from these Your Life Calendar selects the most important and relevant suggestions for the best use of your day in the areas of Love and Relationships, Money and Career, Home and Family, and Children and Sex (if you have selected them).

In addition, you will see the astrological events that apply not just to you, but to everyone. Knowing this, you can plan better those activities that involve others and even start to understand why several people all have a bad day all at once!

Your Personal Day-by-Day, Month-by-Month Astrological Life Calendar will educate you and help you interpret for yourself what courses of action are the right ones for you to take to achieve what you want in life. As each day finishes you can make notes in the special diary section on what has happened that day. And each day you can assess for yourself how accurate your own unique reading was in relation to the choices you made that day.

There is no doubt that you will be able to increase your learning and self-understanding day-by-day, month-by-month, helping you set specific objectives and achieve those life goals that at one time seemed so unattainable.

Over time, when you look back through your diary, you will be able to see a pattern emerging of what choices you have been creating. As your self-understanding improves, you will see how different choices and decisions could have improved or altered the outcome.

When you see a particular descriptive paragraph in Your Life Calendar re-occurring, you can look back at the previous time it was present in your life and read your own record of that day's events. By using this information you will be able to determine the best times to plan certain activities in the future!

An Introduction To Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar

Let's look at your Life Calendar element-by-element, so you can take fullest advantage of the incredible tool you are holding in your hands. The more you understand how each area of the calendar brings you specific information, the faster you can use all of these pieces. As a maestro conducts a symphony, so you can conduct your life!!

A. Your Birth Chart

The basis for your astrological calendar is your unique birth chart. It is calculated based upon the date, place, and time (if you know it) of your birth. Your chart is a “map” of the sky at the moment of your birth and no one else can have that exact same chart as you unless they were born on the same date, in the same place, and at the same time as you were. That makes this chart truly unique for you and you alone. If you compare this chart with one for anyone else, even if they have the same birthday, you will find that your charts are different.

Your chart is the first component to be included with your calendar, at no extra charge, so that you can see the basis for the astrological interpretations provided by our experts. However, you do not need to understand your chart in order to make use of your calendar. We do the interpretation work and explanation for you!

B. Day-By-Day Pages

In this section you will find the pages of your calendar covering the whole month. Each day is divided into two sections comprising a top and bottom section. As you turn the pages you'll see alternate pages show three or four days to view making up the seven days of the week. A week will always start on a Sunday so there may be more or less days than an exact calendar month. “How To Read Your Calendar” is explained in detail in the next section headed “Your Calendar Pages And How To Use Them.”

C. Glossary for “Trends: Major Issues in Your Life” Explained

Next you will find a collection of paragraphs under the heading “Glossary for Trends: Major Issues in Your Life” that are relevant only to you. These are the enduring, long term issues that will come up in your life. One benefit of knowing these in advance is that you can choose to use these energies in a positive way as suggested in these paragraphs. Without this knowledge, you might use these energies (or trends) in a less productive or possibly negative way, all because you didn't know in advance.

Every month, on your calendar pages, the longer term trends for you during this month are presented in a simplified chart. On the calendar pages, you are given a descriptive title for each of the longer term energies in effect for that day. The complete explanations for these descriptive titles are included in the paragraphs in this section. These paragraphs are the key to fully understanding these energies.

The title for each paragraph in this section will appear in Your Astrological Life Calendar at some time between now and the end of the year. Only those paragraphs which apply to you will be included in this section, so keep this part of your calendar safe; you can't borrow these pages from a friend. The descriptive paragraphs for all of the calendar months you received are alphabetically listed at the end in their own section so you can find them.

You'll notice that each paragraph has a symbol next to it, either a ♥, a $ or a 🏠. These symbols tell you how this planetary configuration relates specifically to the three most important areas of your life. At the end of each paragraph, the planetary configuration is listed so that, if you like, you can become familiar with the astrological techniques used.

D. Glossary for “How to Express Yourself Better” Explained

Next you will find a collection of paragraphs under the heading “Glossary for How to Express Yourself Better.” Every month, on your calendar pages, you will see a set of four titles listed next to the symbols for Sun (☉), Mercury (☿), Venus (♀), and Mars (♂). Astrologically, these represent how best to express four major drives in your life.

The Sun (☉) tells you the best way for you to “shine,” where you can get recognition, what's most affirming to your self-esteem, and what people are likely to admire about you. Feeding your Sun feeds your personal vitality.

Mercury (☿) tells you the best way to communicate, what is likely to be on your mind, the thoughts you need to share with others, and what might help or hinder your objectivity.

Venus (♀) is the key to pleasure, both in the physical world and in love relationships. She represents our desire to enjoy, whether food, money, possessions, making love, creating beauty, or the gratifying company of other people.

Finally Mars (♂) represents your assertive side, where you need to be first, to be independent, to be active, to go your own way. Blocking your Mars can make you feel tired and frustrated. Feeding our Mars adds to your energy level.

You can see how understanding these basic needs and desires can help you to accomplish your goals and enjoy yourself in the process. To make it even easier, we have suggested the best ways to express these important parts of yourself in the areas of Love (♥), Money and Career ($), and Home and Family (🏠).

Once again, there are many, many possibilities and only the ones that are specifically important for you that day are listed. These paragraphs are the key to fully understanding these energies. The descriptive paragraphs for all of the calendar months you received are alphabetically listed at the end in their own section so you can easily find them.

Your Calendar Pages and How to Use Them

Before each section of the calendar is described, we want to point out something of utmost importance to you. You'll see that we have left room for diary notes on Your Life Calendar. You will get the most out of this tool if you write down what is going on in your life day by day. By jotting down something every day (or most days), you become more aware of the patterns in your life—and can take better advantage of your personal cycles.

How To Use Section 1: Trends: Major Issues in Your Life

The first section of Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar is called “Trends: Major Issues in Your Life.” These are based on the current positions of the planets in our solar system in comparison to the positions in your horoscope—calculated from the day, month, year, hour, and minute (plus place) where you were born! No one has the same horoscope as you unless that person was born the exact same minute in the exact same location on the Earth! Your horoscope is unique to you—just like your fingerprints!

Across the top of the Trends section is a listing for trends that are in focus for all of the days on that page of your calendar. Because this information is calculated for you uniquely, there may be one heading that lasts for the entire three or four days, or there may be several. If you see more than one title, separated by a semi-colon, then you have more than one trend happening at one time. We do not know until we calculate this information using your birth date, place and time and the date range of the calendar page how many trends apply uniquely to you on a given day.

You will notice that some of the Trends last for many days (even weeks or months) whilst others last for only short periods. You can tell when an existing trend stops because it is listed separately in a box with a line that extends to the date where the trend ends. You can tell when a new trend starts by looking for the beginning of new boxes and noting the day on which the box starts.

Example:

Each trend has a descriptive title. That is a succinct summary of what the trend represents—and our best advice on how to deal with it. (The trend, in our example, is titled: Power Within or Power Struggles.) A more complete explanation of each trend can be read in the glossary at the back of your calendar. All individual trends are listed in alphabetical order. The title for this section at the back of your calendar is called “Glossary for Trends: Major Issues in Your Life,” which was described earlier in the introduction. All of the trends that will appear in your calendar from your first month until the end of the calendar year are listed in this section.

Consider these trends as background for everything else in your life. They should overshadow the more temporary matters which are discussed in other sections. When there are different messages, give more weight to what is said in the trends section. It will be more significant.

How To Use Section 2: How to Express Yourself Better

The next section is called “How to Express Yourself Better.” This section follows the movement of four key planets, representing four important drives in your nature, through the parts of your chart that astrologers call “houses.” (We call the Sun a planet even though we know it is really a star—the only star in our solar system. It is just easier to speak of four planets than to speak of three planets plus a star.) The Sun represents your self-esteem and need to shine. Mercury represents your drive to think and to communicate (talk, write). Venus represents your desire for pleasure—both from money and possessions and from people and love. Mars represents your need to be active, independent and assertive.

The houses of a horoscope represent different people in your life and different interests. For example, the fourth house is a key to your parents, your own home and family and your need to nurture (pets, plants, etc.). The “How to Express Yourself Better” section provides short phrases or descriptive titles which tell you the best way to express yourself associated with each planet in the house it is currently occupying—in your personal horoscope. Note that the planets take from one to two months to move through each house, so you have some time to successfully express the desires involved.

Although only the descriptive titles appear on the actual calendar pages, a fuller interpretation is given in the glossary at the back of your calendar. All individual titles are again listed in alphabetical order for your easy reference. Each planet position that is relevant for you personally is in the section entitled “Glossary to How to Express Yourself Better.” As always, we suggest the best ways for you to use these cosmic patterns. So, for example, when the Sun goes through your first house (“Personal Potency” is the title), we suggest you get out there and shine!

Recognition and positive regard are easier to achieve. You have more charisma.

Because the titles change only when a planet moves into a new house, you can easily notice when changes occur. You don't have to read the house interpretations every day. You know what is a background need for you—for about one or two months—and the same title appearing each day just reminds you of your highest potentials for that month(s).

How To Use Section 3: Detailed Daily Interpretation of Your Horoscope

The next section is your Detailed Daily Interpretation of Your Horoscope. This is the most personal and most quickly changing portion of Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar. For each day of the week, you will get messages in several different life areas. Everyone will get messages applying to the following areas of your life: Love and Relationships; Career and Money; Home and Family. In addition, for those of you who wish to receive them, messages are also available for the areas of your life regarding Children and Sex. (You can ask for these when you re-order.)

Each daily message actually requires a great deal of work! It is combining information from 10 planets in any of 12 houses in any of 12 signs, making connections with each other in any of 9 different ways. We carefully combine all that data and summarize the most important messages for you. This daily message gives you a feeling for the best activities you can engage in—and a warning when certain pitfalls may be lurking. As throughout Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar, we'll help you to see what the best ways are to “go with the flow” in your life on a day-by-day basis!

You may find that some of these messages repeat over the months. This means that similar astrological configurations are present which give you the opportunity to use and re-use the information you have gained using your personal calendar, and especially the daily diary notes. If you write down your experience of the day, each and every day, then when the paragraph repeats, you already know something about how you have worked with this kind of planetary energy before and you can use that to your advantage.

For example, if your Detailed Daily Interpretation of Your Horoscope recommends detachment in terms of Love Relationships, you may find that focusing on your own hobbies keeps you from arguing with a spouse.

How To Use Section 4: Life Lessons

You will notice that occasionally your week includes a “Life Lesson.” This occurs on an irregular basis. When certain cosmic patterns occur, they indicate that you are about to be tested in regard to a certain issue. It might be that the test is whether you can assert yourself, defend your own rights, stand firm for what you deserve. Or, perhaps a celestial test will examine whether you are able to let other people take care of you or insist on being rabidly independent about everything. The “Life Lesson” information will tell you what examination the universe is sending your way—and then you'll know whether you get a “pass” grade or make it to the very top of the class!

How To Use Section 5: Moon (♁) and Mercury (☿) Section

The black bars in the Moon and Mercury section refer to two phenomena: one called “Moon Void of Course” and the other called “Mercury Retrograde.” This section and the Astro Weather section that follows provide general background material which apply to everyone—not just you! These are the only parts of your calendar which are not written for you alone. The information given in this section can be used by you, but also by other people around you. In each case, along with the technical information which is provided, we give you a few words (or sentences) which suggest the best way to take advantage of this celestial pattern. This information will appear at the bottom of the Astro-Weather section for your convenience.

The Moon Void-of-Course black bars could last for a few minutes of one day to more than one day. If the Moon is Void of Course, there is a corresponding paragraph in Astro Weather which describes how to best approach that time of the day.

The Mercury Retrograde period usually lasts 20-25 days, and is indicated by a black bar across the days involved. These periods are excellent for review, research and repairs and times when people need to be more cautious with machinery. Double check the fine print with anything you buy or sign, and confirm appointments and directions carefully (as miscommunication can occur more easily). “Take Care with Communications” appears in the box to remind you.

The Moon and Mercury phenomenon are shown in your calendar as black bars which are placed on the portions of the day or days for which the phenomenon apply. So you know exactly what part of the day or days has that particular planetary configuration and you can use this vital information yourself or you can share it with others to your advantage.

How To Use Section 6: Astro-Weather—Current Issues for Everyone

The section called “Astro Weather” is also general background material which applies to everyone. Several bits of data apply to the Moon. You will learn which phase the Moon is in. For example, the New Moon phase is an excellent time to initiate, to begin projects of any sort. When planning publicity releases, openings and other such new beginnings, a New Moon is an excellent period to choose. By keeping your own diary, you will notice any patterns in your life which connect to the phase the Moon is in. (For example, one person might notice that a particular relative always calls within a day or so of the Full Moon.)

Your Life Calendar also tells you what Sign of the Zodiac the Moon is in. Each sign has its own particular significance—and that meaning is printed out for you when the Moon changes signs. However, by keeping track of your daily experience which you should record in Section 7 (the Daily Diary Notes section), you will notice your own unique patterns as well. Perhaps you get more phone calls when the Moon is in Gemini or you almost always go shopping when the Moon is in Leo.

Finally if there is a black bar in the Moon section, it will be explained here. The Moon Void-of-Course black bars indicate times when matters may not go as one expects, when a little extra thinking and planning is probably a good idea. As with each bit of “Astro Weather,” a few words or key phrases are provided to suggest the best course of action for you to take.

Remember, all the Astro Weather information can be used by other people! It is not just for you, so be willing to share with the ones you love!

How To Use Section 7: Daily Diary Notes

The Daily Diary Notes section is vital! As we mentioned earlier, Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar will be most valuable if you jot down what is going on in your life daily! You’ll be amazed at the sort of patterns and cosmic connections which emerge when you jot down a few notes! If you complete your Daily Diary Notes, you will benefit enormously in your daily life. In fact, we guarantee it!!

How To Use Section 8: Appointments

The Appointments section allows you to remember important dates (birthdays, etc.) and appointments which you need to keep.

How To Use Section 9: Relevance Rating

We want you to objectively evaluate the information we’ve provided on each day to determine for yourself how relevant it is to your life experience. This check box enables you to quickly note exactly how helpful this calendar is in your life. You’ll see, as the months pass, that as you use this tool daily and record your experiences in the Daily Diary Notes section you will become more in tune with the planetary energies and your relevance rating will naturally increase.

Section 3	♥ Love	The issue today is being realistic without too much criticism 050of your self or others (people). Don't push yourself or others too hard. Take any sensible step to enhance things.	Today you are facing the seesaw between being loved for who you are versus being loved for what you do. Some of both are present in most relationships. Allow a mixture.	You or a partner might feel torn between equality and control; a career and a partnership. Others could bounce from treating you as an equal to trying to dominate. Seek balance.	You may notice the restrictions in a relationship, or feel your partner is dominating and controlling. Exercise the power you have to increase your security and spirit.
	$ Money Career	Joint financial action is suggested today. Decisions may be shared, or you may simply wish to spend money on a partner or for a mutually pleasurable experience.	Do something financially which will please both you and a partner in your life. Compromise is called for, to satisfy personal as well as shared goals.	Ambitions for a career versus goals for a partnership may create conflicting financial needs. Do not sell one short for the other. Find a balance of attention and resources for both.	You and a partner may want to examine carefully your current financial plan. Revisions could be made to use your resources more sensibly. Consider work demands as well.
	🏠 Home Family	Love and work can be combined well today. Household chores run relatively smoothly. A spirit of cooperation prevails. Each person is willing to help out.	Reality reigns supreme. The accent today is on getting down to business as far as home and family are concerned. Do what must be done and don't try to avoid it.	You can devote time to both people and tasks within the home today. You have a good balance between social requirements and physical demands within the nest.	You could swing between ease and effort today--working very hard on the home and then kicking back, ready to totally relax. Perhaps a middle ground would feel easier?

Section 3	♥ Love	An excellent time for a probing analysis of your relationships with the perseverance to face facts squarely and the discipline to make the necessary adjustments.	Your relationships could bring up issues of self-indulgence versus self-control today--whether primarily around food, drinking, sexuality or money.	Issues of practical empathy and realistic caring are uppermost in your relationships today. If the rational focus is overdone, you or a partner may long for more warmth.
	$ Money Career	Today, you will feel better having purchases or investments which will be around for a long time. Financial security is what appeals most. Look to what you can trust and depend on.	Teamwork comes naturally today. The urge to cooperate with others is strong and you can be more diplomatic than usual. You are likely to prefer a pleasant atmosphere.	Take a short break today to consider your financial situation and possible budgets. You are more objective and detached about money matters and can gather useful information.
	🏠 Home Family	Be practical about what is hidden. Now is the time to look beneath the surface of your home (plumbing, termites, etc.) and of family members (suppressed feelings). Be aware.	One-on-one exchanges are accented. Domestic decisions are best made in tandem with someone else. The feedback of others will help you to reach the optimal conclusions.	Practical teamwork is accented. You will accomplish the most by joining forces with other loved ones. Projects which are agreed upon can be done very well.

Section 3	♥ Love	Work needs may compete with relationship needs today. You or a partner could fall into a workaholic stance, or feel blocked, inadequate and frustrated. Do what you can and relax.	Shared responsibilities and shared power and authority will help ensure that neither partner carries too much clout. Take practical steps to enhance the foundation you have built.	Consolidation time for your relationship. Today is a good time to relive some pleasant memories, appreciate nostalgia and remember what is best from the past.	The focus today is on being cool, calm and collected. You or a partner may even weigh things overlong, trying to reach the absolute best decision. Logic won't solve everything.
	$ Money Career	Long-term financial planning is appropriate today. Think about what you want for the future and determine ways to achieve it. Luck is partly a matter of a positive attitude.	Your mind will probably be racing all day, with myriad ideas and concepts. You may want to jot down some of your thoughts for later exploration.	Today you may be inclined to financial extremes: pushing for more than is possible, or feeling more blocked and restricted than is true. Be realistic and sensible around money.	The quality of your working environment may matter more than usual to you today. Perhaps you can brighten up the place with a little redecorating, a plant, a picture, etc.
	🏠 Home Family	Discipline and dedication are very strong now. You can accomplish a lot within your domestic environment, but do not carry more than your fair share of the burdens!	Parental motifs are emphasized. You may find yourself interacting more with authority figures, or having to own your own expertise and power, especially in the home.	Familiar patterns and customs feel reassuring. This is a good time for following an old family tradition. What is tried-and-true seems more satisfying.	Cooperative endeavors are favored within the home. Joining forces with others or creating some alliances works well. Mutuality ranks high.

You are likely to be feeling more restless than usual today about working, and may seriously contemplate a job change. A shift is possible, just be sure it is in your best interests. Hard work and responsibility are accented within the home. Don't carry too much of the load. Do accent practicality and a realistic appraisal of domestic needs.	Issues of conditional and unconditional love emerge with loved ones. Do you focus on providing consequences to people's actions--or nonjudgmental support and affection? Section 3	♥ Love	More of an urge for togetherness is likely in your psyche or in your partner's. Express your tenderness, caring and support and be open to receiving warmth back.	You or a partner needs extra reassurance today. Focus on being supportive to one another. If you are used to being a bit more independent, relax; that can come another day.	You may notice the restrictions in a relationship, or feel your partner is dominating and controlling. Exercise the power you have to increase your security and spirit.
	$ Money Career	Today your financial decisions are likely to involve the people you love. This could mean family consultations about money, shared decisions, or buying for and with other people.	Warmer interactions than usual with colleagues are possible. You may find yourself gaining or giving emotional support to others on the job, or thinking about home duties.	You want some thrills with your money, and speculation or risky investments may tempt you. You need some excitement with your money, but don't take too big of a chance!
	🏠 Home Family	Close ties need to be strengthened--whether with family members, pets, or any recipients of your warmth and caring. Emotional connections and support are favored.	Time to strengthen those ties that bind. Activities which accent family feelings or emotional support are favored--whether with pets, people, or sentimental attachments.	Nurturing and vulnerability are accented. You can choose to be more needy, or more protective--whether of family, pets, a garden, your home, or other targets of your care.

Section 3	♥ Love	Partners might overdo being too protective or too judgmental, critical and harsh. You are learning today to balance emotional security needs with practical, survival needs.	A quiet sharing in the home may well appeal today. You feel a need for some emotional attachment, a feeling of loving support (from you to a partner and from a partner to you).	Togetherness appeals today and doing things as a couple is quite appropriate. Get some time alone--just you and your partner, away from children, friends, family, etc.	Consolidation time for your relationship. Today is a good time to relive some pleasant memories, appreciate nostalgia and remember what is best from the past.
	$ Money Career	Money could come (or go) through situations involving the home or family. There may be some tension between a desire to save for security and a spending impulse; balance is possible.	Your home responsibilities may be on your mind a lot at work. Strive to give your best to both areas, not shortchanging family or career.	Take a short break today to consider your financial situation and possible budgets. You are more objective and detached about money matters and can gather useful information.	A change in routine, duties or the project you are working on might appeal at this point. You may even consider a complete career change. You need some variety; lighten up.
	🏠 Home Family	Emotional matters are accented. You may cling a bit more, or find those near and dear to you need extra support. Or, perhaps time at home, alone, is given high priority.	Competing roles are likely within your home. You may have to choose between relating on an equal level versus being a parental type (or caretaker).	Exercise your mind within the home. Intellectual motifs are strong; new ideas and fascinating information appeal. Share concepts with those near and dear to you.	Cooperative endeavors are favored within the home. Joining forces with others or creating some alliances works well. Mutuality ranks high.

Hard work and responsibility are accented within the home. Don't carry too much of the load. Do accent practicality and a realistic appraisal of domestic needs.	Family members are inclined to think about the tangible. A concrete focus could prove annoying, or you can encourage practical tasks and a dedication to getting things done.	Loosen up! Section 3	♥ Love	You are striving to balance the push/pull between success in the outer world and sharing in a committed relationship today. Keep room for both intimacy and work.	You or a partner might feel torn between equality and control; a career and a partnership. Others could bounce from treating you as an equal to trying to dominate. Seek balance.	Do what you and a partner enjoy the most. Familiar pleasures satisfy. Comfort and security will probably be much appreciated. Share reminiscing about the best of times.	Shared responsibilities and shared power and authority will help ensure that neither partner carries too much clout. Take practical steps to enhance the foundation you have built.

It could be a lottery ticket, a flyer in the stock market, a bet at the track, the office sports pool, etc.	You crave excitement and may dream of a big payoff, looking for a gamble that offers a chance to "hit it big." A small chance is OK, but don't risk more than you can afford to lose.	You are likely to be feeling more restless than usual today about working, and may seriously contemplate a job change. Questions of authority are apt to emerge within your home. Be clear about your personal limits and don't let anyone intimidate you.	Joint financial matters are in focus. Are each family member's monetary responsibilities and obligations clear? You may consider a loan to enhance your home.

Section 3	♥ Love	Allow space for both you and a partner to be potent and forceful today without needing to dominate the other. Perhaps you can direct the drive and ambition into the world.	Shared responsibilities and shared power and authority will help ensure that neither partner carries too much clout. Take practical steps to enhance the foundation you have built.	An excellent time for a probing analysis of your relationships with the perseverance to face facts squarely and the discipline to make the necessary adjustments.	A quiet sharing in the home may well appeal today. You feel a need for some emotional attachment, a feeling of loving support (from you to a partner and from a partner to you).
	$ Money Career	Today is an excellent time to take stock of your assets. You need a feeling of control over your financial matters. Check to be sure accounts are being handled as you wish.	Attention to debts owed and owing could be helpful. Maintain financial control. (To paraphrase Joan Rivers: "Trust other people, and get as much as possible in your own name!")	A change in the financial picture is possible. Friends or groups may bring in new financial opportunities or ideas. Be open to alternatives, but don't fall for any wacky schemes.	Input or assistance from friends or family can be helpful at work today. You may feel a sense of tension between an impulse for change versus a desire for a dependable position.
	🏠 Home Family	Dominance games are possible. If you channel competitive urges--whether your own or those of family members--into games or sports, happier endings are likely.	Who's in charge here? Questions of authority are apt to emerge within your home. Be clear about your personal limits and don't let anyone intimidate you.	Hard work and responsibility are accented within the home. Don't carry too much of the load. Do accent practicality and a realistic appraisal of domestic needs.	Familiar pleasures taste sweet, but the lure of the new is also strong. Combine a bit of both with loved ones for the best results. Security plus a bit of spice works well.

Section 3	♥ Love	You are striving to balance the push/pull between success in the outer world and sharing in a committed relationship today. Keep room for both intimacy and work.	You or a partner might feel torn between equality and control; a career and a partnership. Others could bounce from treating you as an equal to trying to dominate. Seek balance.	More of an urge for togetherness is likely in your psyche or in your partner's. Express your tenderness, caring and support and be open to receiving warmth back.	You may notice the restrictions in a relationship, or feel your partner is dominating and controlling. Exercise the power you have to increase your security and spirit.
	$ Money Career	Time to buy those stamps, cards and letters. People are waiting to hear from you. Strike up a conversation in line at the post office. Money may even arrive through the mail.	Communication is likely to be more emphasized on the job today as you discover a need to discuss more with those around you. Using your head can help you be even more efficient.	Money matters are mixed with other people today and feelings play an important role. Consult with family on any major financial decisions. Listen to your emotions.	You need to feel independent in your achievements today. Feeling hemmed in or confined could lead to rash words or actions. Keep your options open at work.
	🏠 Home Family	Competing roles are likely within your home. You may have to choose between relating on an equal level versus being a parental type (or caretaker).	Give-and-take with your near and dear is accented. Now is the time to clarify who does what around the house and reassign duties as needed. Cooperative ventures go well.	Time by yourself is more important than usual. Do some inward searching and give yourself opportunities to work through feelings away from everyone else.	Keep on keeping on in terms of domestic matters. Endurance and continuity are favored. What is familiar and safe feels best. Habit patterns are OK now.

Section 3	♥ Love	Shared responsibilities and shared power and authority will help ensure that neither partner carries too much clout. Take practical steps to enhance the foundation you have built.	You may notice the restrictions in a relationship, or feel your partner is dominating and controlling. Exercise the power you have to increase your security and spirit.	Partners might overdo being too protective or too judgmental, critical and harsh. You are learning today to balance emotional security needs with practical, survival needs.
	$ Money Career	Make sure you have plenty of space to do things your way today. You need a sense of independence in operating. Look for creative ways to ensure you can work on your own terms.	Today you are likely to use your money to gain a sense of greater freedom. This could range from buying an airplane, to treating yourself to a night out, or other forms of liberty.	Today, the quest is for a sense of increased independence & ability to do what you want financially. Actions could range from saving for a "splurge" to hiring a housecleaner, etc.
	🏠 Home Family	The quest for an "ideal" home is strong today. Efforts to beautify the home are favored, but don't expect family members or yourself to be "perfect." Imagery prevails.	Nurturing and vulnerability are accented. You can choose to be more needy, or more protective--whether of family, pets, a garden, your home, or other targets of your care.	Restlessness is likely. Get out of the nest and get some stimulation, or chaos and disruption may be created by family members. Independence is the order of the day.

Section 3	♥ Love	The urge for space may be more prominent today in your psyche or in your partner's. Give one another a little more room and do not take it personally.	Independence is more important today than sharing everything. The closeness cycle will occur in its own time. Keep your options open and don't crowd your partner.	Change may be on your mind--or on your partner's. This could be a small alteration in your routine, or the desire for a major break. Look for ways to perk up your time together.	Today you are likely to seek more mental stimulation or communication from your partner. Sharing ideas, discussions and thoughts forges new connections.
	$ Money Career	Logic and common sense are your best financial assets today. Think it over before you take any action, and use your head. Rationality wins over emotions today.	You want to do your own thing on the job today. Working alone, in your own way, at your own speed has more appeal. Much energy can be directed into accomplishment.	Your mind will probably be racing all day, with myriad ideas and concepts. You may want to jot down some of your thoughts for later exploration.	Use your head to plan improvements in current assets. Your mind, communication skills, or people contacts can be of use financially today. Possible money news in the mail.
	🏠 Home Family	Hard work and responsibility are accented within the home. Don't carry too much of the load. Do accent practicality and a realistic appraisal of domestic needs.	Family members are inclined to think about the tangible. A concrete focus could prove annoying, or you can encourage practical tasks and a dedication to getting things done.	You need to hear and be heard by family members. Be sure the channels of communication are open and available. An objective eye will be your best resource.	Familiar patterns and customs feel reassuring. This is a good time for following an old family tradition. What is tried-and-true seems more satisfying.

Section 3	♥ Love	Words can build bridges if used well today. Do not shut yourselves off with supposed detachment, but be willing to listen to one another's feelings and ideas.	Time for communication. Bring up those issues you've been avoiding and encourage your partner to face facts also. Talk it over.	Consolidation time for your relationship. Today is a good time to relive some pleasant memories, appreciate nostalgia and remember what is best from the past.
	$ Money Career	Don't let yourself get stifled today. You need lots of variety at work. Bring in a plant, move the office pictures, sit on the other side of your desk or alter your space a bit.	If you enjoy beauty, today is a likely day to spend money on makeup, art objects, home decorating, flowers or other beautification projects. Creativity is linked to finances.	The creation of beauty around you may be a source of funds or expenditure. If you are artistically involved, you may receive payment for one of your creations.
	🏠 Home Family	Exercise your mind within the home. Intellectual motifs are strong; new ideas and fascinating information appeal. Share concepts with those near and dear to you.	Endeavors which combine visualizing skills and practical achievements are favored. Handicrafts or home improvements of all kinds go well.	Compassion is highlighted. Family members may go that "extra mile" or you may incline toward sacrifice for others. Just don't be excessive in your assisting activities!

Section 3	♥ Love	You and your partners may be torn between self-expression and intimacy today. You are both trying to balance personal needs for freedom with needs for emotional closeness.	You could experience current partners (or attract people if you're looking) who are too free (not there when you needed them), or too close (smothering, possessive). Balance.	Get out the chocolates, soft music, hot tub, incense, wine or other indulgences you and a partner enjoy. Hedonism reigns today.	You can be more objective and detached today. Talking things over with your partner will help you both find more common ground. Your differences are less than you think.
	$ Money Career	Money could be used to make you or others more comfortable. This can include putting some in a savings account, but spending on any kind of sensory gratification is also likely.	Pleasure and ease around finances are sought today. That could be expressed as putting money in the bank, or gratification might come through buying food, drink, clothes, etc.	A comfortable day at work has strong appeal. You may wish to rearrange the working environment so as to be more attractive; you may strive to avoid confrontations.	You need to feel independent in your achievements today. Feeling hemmed in or confined could lead to rash words or actions. Keep your options open at work.
	🏠 Home Family	Hot/cold interchanges may prevail within your domicile. You could feel torn between getting closer or pulling away from others. Look for a happy medium, a bit of both.	Tactile pleasures are accented today. This could range from indulging in food, hugs, massage, bubble baths, or other gratifying activities. The comforts of home rank high.	Dear ones may be more talkative than usual, or you find you have something important to say to them. Clear communication is your best approach for good relations.	You need to hear and be heard by family members. Be sure the channels of communication are open and available. An objective eye will be your best resource.

Section 3	♥ Love	Togetherness appeals today and doing things as a couple is quite appropriate. Get some time alone--just you and your partner, away from children, friends, family, etc.	More of an urge for togetherness is likely in your psyche or in your partner's. Express your tenderness, caring and support and be open to receiving warmth back.	You or a partner needs extra reassurance today. Focus on being supportive to one another. If you are used to being a bit more independent, relax; that can come another day.	Intimacy needs are strong today. A sexual connection may help you feel that bond of closeness with a partner, or you may prefer other forms of sharing. You need depth.
	$ Money Career	Sales ability is higher than usual today. Can you turn it into a source of income? Look around for what you can offer. Social activities may also appeal as a source of spending.	Give something indulgent to your lover. Money is enjoyed with loved ones (children, lovers, etc.) and mutual pleasure is the goal. Balance your desires with theirs.	You are likely to be feeling more restless than usual today about working, and may seriously contemplate a job change. A shift is possible, just be sure it is in your best interests.	A change in routine, duties or the project you are working on might appeal at this point. You may even consider a complete career change. You need some variety; lighten up.
	🏠 Home Family	The desire for aesthetic surroundings is stronger. You may want to make your home more attractive or fall into "make nice" interactions with loved ones. Don't be too sweet!	Close ties need to be strengthened--whether with family members, pets, or any recipients of your warmth and caring. Emotional connections and support are favored.	Time to strengthen those ties that bind. Activities which accent family feelings or emotional support are favored--whether with pets, people, or sentimental attachments.	Family members may be restless or irritable, or you're in the mood to move about. Be assertive in the domestic realm without getting into trouble. Directness feels better.

Section 3	♥ Love	Today, you and those you care about are facing the issue of practicality. Make sure you are in agreement about what is realistic to do.	Either you or a partner might be too concerned with the bottom line, too focused on getting and having things today. Stay moderate; you can both be relaxed as well as efficient.	A quiet sharing in the home may well appeal today. You feel a need for some emotional attachment, a feeling of loving support (from you to a partner and from a partner to you).
	$ Money Career	Today you have a stronger need than usual to have your work under your own, personal control. You are likely to feel more determined to accomplish when, where and how you choose.	Today your fantasies may be pulling you away from the tangible details of what you do for a living. Try to balance visions with permanent results on the job.	Today your financial decisions are likely to involve the people you love. This could mean family consultations about money, shared decisions, or buying for and with other people.
	🏠 Home Family	You can accomplish your household chores rapidly today. You whip through domestic demands at a good clip. Efficiency and speed combine forces very well.	Improvement urges center around home and family. You could feel sharply about what needs to be fixed. Direct that critical eye toward objects rather than people!	Give-and-take with your near and dear is accented. Now is the time to clarify who does what around the house and reassign duties as needed. Cooperative ventures go well.

Section 3	 Love	Consolidation time for your relationship. Today is a good time to relive some pleasant memories, appreciate nostalgia and remember what is best from the past.	Today, your place could be a center for relatives, friends or neighbors to gather in. Issues of closeness and communication are important in your relationships.	Through your partner today, you are learning about unconscious motivations, depth understanding and deep emotional needs. Don't hide from the truth. Uncover and resolve issues.	The thrill of passion can set your blood zinging today. This could be sexual, but it could also be the excitement of being creative or taking a new direction in your relationship.
	 Money Career	Money could be used to make you or others more comfortable. This can include putting some in a savings account, but spending on any kind of sensory gratification is also likely.	Communication is vital today at work. There may be extra correspondence, phone calls, or office chitchat. Everyone may want to chip in with ideas. Your sense of humor will help.	You need to feel independent in your achievements today. Feeling hemmed in or confined could lead to rash words or actions. Keep your options open at work.	Today you want to have some fun at work. Your sense of humor is activated and you are probably feeling more restless than usual. A good bet is tackling a new challenge at work.
	 Home Family	How pushy should you be? A balancing act, between going after what you want and pleasing other people, is essential today. Find that golden mean with family members.	Free expression reigns. Family members may be more blunt than usual, or you may find yourself blurting out thoughts with little restraint. Humor can be a helpful resource.	Self-expression feels more important. You need to do your own thing without conflicting with those near and dear to you. Be sensible in the ways you seek independence.	Cooperative endeavors are favored within the home. Joining forces with others or creating some alliances works well. Mutuality ranks high.

Section 3	♥ Love	An energetic exchange of ideas is likely, but leave room for tact on both sides lest one person bulldoze the other in conversation. Communication may lead to a new relationship.	Consolidation time for your relationship. Today is a good time to relive some pleasant memories, appreciate nostalgia and remember what is best from the past.	Get out the chocolates, soft music, hot tub, incense, wine or other indulgences you and a partner enjoy. Hedonism reigns today.	Today, your place could be a center for relatives, friends or neighbors to gather in. Issues of closeness and communication are important in your relationships.
	$ Money Career	Sharp words over money could occur. Use your sense of humor to keep things light. Perhaps you can substitute discussing possible buys over an actual purchase.	Consolidate your gains at work. Take steps to ensure your future job security. Today is time to follow established routines.	Your inner child would like to play with money today. Do not be too extravagant, but look at finances with a bit of a playful eye. Have fun, entertain, buy for children, etc.	Perhaps it is time for that block party. Social activities can be a source of expenditure and having fun with your money appeals. You may entertain or go out for a good time.
	🏠 Home Family	Hot/cold interchanges may prevail within your domicile. You could feel torn between getting closer or pulling away from others. Look for a happy medium, a bit of both.	Familiar patterns and customs feel reassuring. This is a good time for following an old family tradition. What is tried-and-true seems more satisfying.	Self-expression feels more important. You need to do your own thing without conflicting with those near and dear to you. Be sensible in the ways you seek independence.	A restless mind is likely. You may want to do some research from home or tackle a mentally demanding project. You can put thoughts about family on paper.

Seek a balance between caring for and being cared for.	You may feel drawn to act as a caretaker to your partner, or seek a sense of support and protection from your partner. Both you and your partner need to avoid being too clingy, protective, dependent or undisciplined, while maintaining warmth, friendliness and a willingness to discuss anything.
	$ Money Career	Shopping for or with relatives is a good bet for today. You may find that special something a family member has been wanting a long time.	Relatives may be involved in the financial picture today. This could mean purchasing items for family members, shopping with them, or simply joint decision making about money matters.	Being objective can improve your financial situation. Information from others could prove valuable. Your logical mind should be the basis for any financial actions today.
	🏠 Home Family	Care taking tendencies are dominant. You may find family members, or pets, or your home itself requires some extra attention and effort from you today. Be considerate. Section 3	♥ Love	A quiet sharing in the home may well appeal today. You feel a need for some emotional attachment, a feeling of loving support (from you to a partner and from a partner to you).	Do what you and a partner enjoy the most. Familiar pleasures satisfy. Comfort and security will probably be much appreciated. Share reminiscing about the best of times.	More of an urge for togetherness is likely in your psyche or in your partner's. Express your tenderness, caring and support and be open to receiving warmth back.	You may feel inclined to analyze your relationship or nit pick your partner. Your partner might also focus on your flaws and shortcomings. Channel any criticism into physical tasks.
	$ Money Career	Today your financial decisions are likely to involve the people you love. This could mean family consultations about money, shared decisions, or buying for and with other people.	Your home responsibilities may be on your mind a lot at work. Strive to give your best to both areas, not shortchanging family or career.	Warmer interactions than usual with colleagues are possible. You may find yourself gaining or giving emotional support to others on the job, or thinking about home duties.	You are likely to feel torn today between wanting a new, exciting vocational challenge, versus wanting to consolidate your current position and provide for a dependable future.
	🏠 Home Family	Efficiency instincts turn toward your domestic environment. Enhancing the home is excellent, but draw the line at trying to "make over" family members.	Time to strengthen those ties that bind. Activities which accent family feelings or emotional support are favored--whether with pets, people, or sentimental attachments.	Those nagging household chores require attention. Taking care of domestic business is advisable, but do not direct your improving instincts toward criticizing people.	You need tangible results within the home. Focus on tasks which provide measurable achievements. You'll feel satisfied at the end of the day with what you've done.

A quiet sharing in the home may well appeal today. You feel a need for some emotional attachment, a feeling of loving support (from you to a partner and from a partner to you).	Practicality, effectiveness, measurable results, a sense of accomplishment and status are today's goals in relationships.

If you enjoy beauty, today is a likely day to spend money on makeup, art objects, home decorating, flowers or other beautification projects. Creativity is linked to finances.
	🏠 Home Family	Family members are inclined to think about the tangible. A concrete focus could prove annoying, or you can encourage practical tasks and a dedication to getting things done. Section 3	♥ Love	You or a partner needs extra reassurance today. Focus on being supportive to one another. If you are used to being a bit more independent, relax; that can come another day.	Consolidation time for your relationship. Today is a good time to relive some pleasant memories, appreciate nostalgia and remember what is best from the past.	It's time for a change in your relationship. It may be very small or very large, but do not maintain the exact status quo. Think of something new and creative you can do.	The urge for space may be more prominent today in your psyche or in your partner's. Give one another a little more room and do not take it personally.
	$ Money Career	Money matters are mixed with other people today and feelings play an important role. Consult with family on any major financial decisions. Listen to your emotions.	A change in routine, duties or the project you are working on might appeal at this point. You may even consider a complete career change. You need some variety; lighten up.	You need to feel independent in your achievements today. Feeling hemmed in or confined could lead to rash words or actions. Keep your options open at work.	Make sure you have plenty of space to do things your way today. You need a sense of independence in operating. Look for creative ways to ensure you can work on your own terms.
	🏠 Home Family	Close ties need to be strengthened--whether with family members, pets, or any recipients of your warmth and caring. Emotional connections and support are favored.	"Feel-good" activities have a strong appeal in the home. Do not overdo with food or drink. Pampering (and being pampered) by loved ones works well. Indulgence reigns.	Restlessness is likely. Get out of the nest and get some stimulation, or chaos and disruption may be created by family members. Independence is the order of the day.	Get out of the house! An urge for freedom is strong. Either have everything your way at home today, or give yourself a break with stimulating activities in the outer world.

Your relationships today are dealing with issues of work and nurturance. Partners could be dedicated and protective--or dependent and needy. Seek a balance between caring for and being cared for. This could range from buying an airplane, to treating yourself to a night out, or other forms of liberty.	You crave excitement and may dream of a big payoff, looking for a gamble that offers a chance to "hit it big." A small chance is OK, but don't risk more than you can afford to lose.

Relaxation, feeling up and enjoying other people are more important today. You and your partners may feel more sociable and fun-loving. Let your natural sparkle out!	Today, your relationships are dealing with the dilemma of balancing self-will with the rights and desires of another. Compromise can lead to an optimally loving interaction.	You have an opportunity to learn about not sacrificing too many of your needs to the relationship nor demanding more than your share. Combine assertion with accommodation.
	$ Money Career	Sales ability is higher than usual today. Can you turn it into a source of income? Look around for what you can offer. Section 3	♥ Love	Allow space for both you and a partner to be potent and forceful today without needing to dominate the other. Perhaps you can direct the drive and ambition into the world.	You or a partner needs extra reassurance today. Focus on being supportive to one another. If you are used to being a bit more independent, relax; that can come another day.	You or a partner might feel torn between equality and control; a career and a partnership. Others could bounce from treating you as an equal to trying to dominate. Seek balance.
	$ Money Career	Today is an excellent time to take stock of your assets. You need a feeling of control over your financial matters. Check to be sure accounts are being handled as you wish.	Today your financial decisions are likely to involve the people you love. This could mean family consultations about money, shared decisions, or buying for and with other people.	If you enjoy beauty, today is a likely day to spend money on makeup, art objects, home decorating, flowers or other beautification projects. Creativity is linked to finances.
	🏠 Home Family	Balance and harmony within the home rise in priority. You may look for more equal division of labor, or seek ways to increase cooperative ventures. Diplomacy serves you well.	Close ties need to be strengthened-- whether with family members, pets, or any recipients of your warmth and caring. Emotional connections and support are favored.	The desire for aesthetic surroundings is stronger. You may want to make your home more attractive or fall into "make nice" interactions with loved ones. Don't be too sweet!

Section 3	♥ Love	Togetherness appeals today and doing things as a couple is quite appropriate. Get some time alone--just you and your partner, away from children, friends, family, etc.	You and your partner are facing the question of how much closeness you wish in your relationship. You both could swing from wanting to merge totally to cherishing your space.	Artistic involvements may appeal--or simply the ideal of a more beautiful relationship. Make the most of any opportunities for mutual pleasure (but don't avoid confrontation).	Relaxation, feeling up and enjoying other people are more important today. You and your partners may feel more sociable and fun-loving. Let your natural sparkle out!
	$ Money Career	Take a short break today to consider your financial situation and possible budgets. You are more objective and detached about money matters and can gather useful information.	Use your head to plan improvements in current assets. Your mind, communication skills, or people contacts can be of use financially today. Possible money news in the mail.	You are likely to seek a peaceful day, avoiding conflicts and trying to maintain a laid-back approach. You will prefer beautiful surroundings.	The creation of beauty around you may be a source of funds or expenditure. If you are artistically involved, you may receive payment for one of your creations.
	🏠 Home Family	Love and work can be combined well today. Household chores run relatively smoothly. A spirit of cooperation prevails. Each person is willing to help out.	Excess dependency can be a drag. Now is the time to encourage a loved one to become more capable, to move toward more parity with you.	Give-and-take with your near and dear is accented. Now is the time to clarify who does what around the house and reassign duties as needed. Cooperative ventures go well.	Those special touches appeal. You may decide to bring home flowers, add a touch of color, or otherwise enhance your domestic environment.

Section 1	Trends: Major Issues in Your Life	Trends in focus for Thursday to Saturday: Confusion, Caring, Concealing or Clairvoyance; Disrupted Ideals			Section 4 Life Lessons  Friday, September 3 Today's quiz addresses the issue of emotional needs. Testing could involve issues of dependency, nurturance, emotional security, caretaking, children, pets and the home. Passing the quiz includes a healthy ability to be dependent as well as nurturant, and reasonable channels for physical and emotional security.

Section 3	♥ Love	Issues of practical empathy and realistic caring are uppermost in your relationships today. If the rational focus is overdone, you or a partner may long for more warmth.	A shared focus on beauty and pleasure is likely. You may "make beautiful music" with a partner. Be sure the desire for pleasantness does not become avoidance of facing issues.	Today, your relationships are dealing with the dilemma of balancing self-will with the rights and desires of another. Compromise can lead to an optimally loving interaction.
	$ Money Career	Your mind will probably be racing all day, with myriad ideas and concepts. You may want to jot down some of your thoughts for later exploration.	Money matters are mixed with other people today and feelings play an important role. Consult with family on any major financial decisions. Listen to your emotions.	Feelings will be significant where finances are concerned today. You cannot please everyone, and the differing people in your life may have conflicting demands. Remember yourself too!
	🏠 Home Family	You need a project! An urge to achieve something around the house is likely. Channel that forcefulness into the physical world--not into trying to alter loved ones.	Time to strengthen those ties that bind. Activities which accent family feelings or emotional support are favored--whether with pets, people, or sentimental attachments.	How pushy should you be? A balancing act, between going after what you want and pleasing other people, is essential today. Find that golden mean with family members.

Section 3	♥ Love	The vulnerability involved in being truly close with a partner may feel threatening; you could push away for a time. Trust your inner strength; the rewards of intimacy can be great.	It's time for a change in your relationship. It may be very small or very large, but do not maintain the exact status quo. Think of something new and creative you can do.	Get out the chocolates, soft music, hot tub, incense, wine or other indulgences you and a partner enjoy. Hedonism reigns today.	More of an urge for togetherness is likely in your psyche or in your partner's. Express your tenderness, caring and support and be open to receiving warmth back.
	$ Money Career	Money matters are mixed with other people today and feelings play an important role. Consult with family on any major financial decisions. Listen to your emotions.	A change in routine, duties or the project you are working on might appeal at this point. You may even consider a complete career change. You need some variety; lighten up.	Today you are willing to take a few chances with some of your money. It could be a lottery ticket, a flyer in the stock market, a bet at the track, the office sports pool, etc.	You crave excitement and may dream of a big payoff, looking for a gamble that offers a chance to "hit it big." A small chance is OK, but don't risk more than you can afford to lose.
	🏠 Home Family	Practical teamwork is accented. You will accomplish the most by joining forces with other loved ones. Projects which are agreed upon can be done very well.	Balance and harmony within the home rise in priority. You may look for more equal division of labor, or seek ways to increase cooperative ventures. Diplomacy serves you well.	Nurturing and vulnerability are accented. You can choose to be more needy, or more protective--whether of family, pets, a garden, your home, or other targets of your care.	Cooperative endeavors are favored within the home. Joining forces with others or creating some alliances works well. Mutuality ranks high.

Section 1	Trends: Major Issues in Your Life	Trends in focus for Thursday to Saturday: Disrupted Ideals; Disciplining Compulsions; Appreciate Benefits From Others			Life Lessons  Tuesday, September 28 Today's lesson tests your self-esteem. Growth comes through confronting the issue of being center stage, doing more than has been done before in life and gaining love, attention or applause for it. Finding your place to shine, while leaving room for other people to be significant in their own way, passes the test.
		Section 2	How to Express Yourself Better	Sun ☉ Home is Where the Heart Is Mercury ♃ Building Bridges Venus ♀ Approval and Admiration Mars ♂ Fervent and Forceful
Section 3	♥ Love	Today you are likely to seek more mental stimulation or communication from your partner. Sharing ideas, discussions and thoughts forges new connections.	Assertion, anger and getting what you want are issues in your relationship. Buried resentments could explode later, so be sure you and your partner are very clear about preferences.	Words can build bridges if used well today. Do not shut yourselves off with supposed detachment, but be willing to listen to one another's feelings and ideas.
	$ Money Career	Your home responsibilities may be on your mind a lot at work. Strive to give your best to both areas, not shortchanging family or career.	Money could come (or go) through situations involving the home or family. There may be some tension between a desire to save for security and a spending impulse; balance is possible.	Take a short break today to consider your financial situation and possible budgets. You are more objective and detached about money matters and can gather useful information.
	🏠 Home Family	Exercise your mind within the home. Intellectual motifs are strong; new ideas and fascinating information appeal. Share concepts with those near and dear to you.	Fiery feelings are uppermost. You need excitement in your home. Create some positive thrills or negative forms (arguments, strife, chaos) are possible. Movement helps.	Variety is the spice of life today. A bit of this and that within the home is likely to appeal. Several different activities with the ones you love work well.

A shared focus on beauty and pleasure is likely. You may "make beautiful music" with a partner. Be sure the desire for pleasantness does not become avoidance of facing issues.	It's time for a change in your relationship. It may be very small or very large, but do not maintain the exact status quo. Think of something new and creative you can do.	More of an urge for togetherness is likely in your psyche or in your partner's. Express your tenderness, caring and support and be open to receiving warmth back.

Section 3	 Love	A shared focus on beauty and pleasure is likely. You may "make beautiful music" with a partner. Be sure the desire for pleasantness does not become avoidance of facing issues.	Artistic involvements may appeal--or simply the ideal of a more beautiful relationship. Make the most of any opportunities for mutual pleasure (but don't avoid confrontation).	Relaxation, feeling up and enjoying other people are more important today. You and your partners may feel more sociable and fun-loving. Let your natural sparkle out!	Someone very charming and magnetic could be in the picture. Just make sure the appeal is more than skin deep. Exercise your natural charm as well as seeking it in others.
	$ Money Career	Your attitude about money matters may be very logical and practical today. If there are touchy issues to be faced, you can be more objective than usual.	The creation of beauty around you may be a source of funds or expenditure. If you are artistically involved, you may receive payment for one of your creations.	Warmer interactions than usual with colleagues are possible. You may find yourself gaining or giving emotional support to others on the job, or thinking about home duties.	Today your financial decisions are likely to involve the people you love. This could mean family consultations about money, shared decisions, or buying for and with other people.
	 Home Family	Love and work can be combined well today. Household chores run relatively smoothly. A spirit of cooperation prevails. Each person is willing to help out.	Time to strengthen those ties that bind. Activities which accent family feelings or emotional support are favored--whether with pets, people, or sentimental attachments.	Dominance games are possible. If you channel competitive urges--whether your own or those of family members--into games or sports, happier endings are likely.	Good times are accented. You can enjoy a party at home--even if you do a last-minute thing. Humor is stronger and you have a flair for entertainment.

	$ Money Career	Ambitions for a career versus goals for a partnership may create conflicting financial needs. Do not sell one short for the other. Find a balance of attention and resources for both.	Communication is likely to be more emphasized on the job today as you discover a need to discuss more with those around you. Using your head can help you be even more efficient. Seek a balance between caring for and being cared for.	Today you are likely to seek more mental stimulation or communication from your partner. Section 3	♥ Love	Today is a day to be with people. Get out, socialize, talk and interact with others. Communicate with your partner, or seek a soul mate who shares your ideas.	A quiet sharing in the home may well appeal today. You feel a need for some emotional attachment, a feeling of loving support (from you to a partner and from a partner to you).	It is okay to be a bit needy on occasion. If you take turns being there for one another, you and your partner are more refreshed for going out and facing the world.	Today you are facing the seesaw between being loved for who you are versus being loved for what you do. Some of both are present in most relationships. Allow a mixture.
	$ Money Career	Sales ability is higher than usual today. Can you turn it into a source of income? Look around for what you can offer. Social activities may also appeal as a source of spending.	You need to feel independent in your achievements today. Feeling hemmed in or confined could lead to rash words or actions. Keep your options open at work.	Feelings will be significant where finances are concerned today. You cannot please everyone, and the differing people in your life may have conflicting demands. Remember yourself too!	You are likely to feel torn today between wanting a new, exciting vocational challenge, versus wanting to consolidate your current position and provide for a dependable future.
	🏠 Home Family	Competing roles are likely within your home. You may have to choose between relating on an equal level versus being a parental type (or caretaker).	Excess dependency can be a drag. Now is the time to encourage a loved one to become more capable, to move toward more parity with you.	Nurturing and vulnerability are accented. You can choose to be more needy, or more protective--whether of family, pets, a garden, your home, or other targets of your care.	Issues of conditional and unconditional love emerge with loved ones. Do you focus on providing consequences to people's actions--or nonjudgmental support and affection?

Section 3	♥ Love	Allow space for both you and a partner to be potent and forceful today without needing to dominate the other. Perhaps you can direct the drive and ambition into the world.	Work needs may compete with relationship needs today. You or a partner could fall into a workaholic stance, or feel blocked, inadequate and frustrated. Do what you can and relax.	It's time for a change in your relationship. It may be very small or very large, but do not maintain the exact status quo. Think of something new and creative you can do.	You or a partner needs extra reassurance today. Focus on being supportive to one another. If you are used to being a bit more independent, relax; that can come another day.
	$ Money Career	You crave excitement and may dream of a big payoff, looking for a gamble that offers a chance to "hit it big." A small chance is OK, but don't risk more than you can afford to lose.	You are likely to be feeling more restless than usual today about working, and may seriously contemplate a job change. A shift is possible, just be sure it is in your best interests.	A change in routine, duties or the project you are working on might appeal at this point. You may even consider a complete career change. You need some variety; lighten up.	Your home responsibilities may be on your mind a lot at work. Strive to give your best to both areas, not shortchanging family or career.
	🏠 Home Family	Love and work can be combined well today. Household chores run relatively smoothly. A spirit of cooperation prevails. Each person is willing to help out.	You can devote time to both people and tasks within the home today. You have a good balance between social requirements and physical demands within the nest.	Be practical about what is hidden. Now is the time to look beneath the surface of your home (plumbing, termites, etc.) and of family members (suppressed feelings). Be aware.	Live a little! The time is ripe to push past your comfort zones in terms of domestic matters. Take a small risk and it can pay off for you. Change your habits.

Section 1	Trends: Major Issues in Your Life	Trends in focus for Thursday to Saturday: Patience Overcomes Frustration; Confusion, Caring, Concealing or Clairvoyance; Disciplined or Delayed Success; Change Outmoded Structures; Disrupted Ideals			Life Lessons  Thursday, February 3 Today's lesson is on the area of faith, trust and beliefs. Goals, religion, philosophy or values could be challenged. Passing the quiz includes maintaining a reachable sense of faith and purpose in life without demanding more than is possible from ourselves, the world, or other people. It includes being able to see happiness as a process--not a destination.

Section 3	♥ Love	You or a partner might feel torn between equality and control; a career and a partnership. Others could bounce from treating you as an equal to trying to dominate. Seek balance.	Shared responsibilities and shared power and authority will help ensure that neither partner carries too much clout. Take practical steps to enhance the foundation you have built.	Some restlessness is likely--from you or from your partner. Discuss with the one you love what innovative ideas you each have that could improve your times together.
	$ Money Career	Your mind will probably be racing all day, with myriad ideas and concepts. You may want to jot down some of your thoughts for later exploration.	Communication is likely to be more emphasized on the job today as you discover a need to discuss more with those around you. Using your head can help you be even more efficient.	Take a short break today to consider your financial situation and possible budgets. You are more objective and detached about money matters and can gather useful information.
	🏠 Home Family	You could swing between ease and effort today--working very hard on the home and then kicking back, ready to totally relax. Perhaps a middle ground would feel easier?	Hard work and responsibility are accented within the home. Don't carry too much of the load. Do accent practicality and a realistic appraisal of domestic needs.	Think of yourself as a pioneer. Breaking out of habitual patterns at home is advisable. Surprise the people around you (lest they bring chaos in). Be creative!

Balance and harmony within the home rise in priority. You may look for more equal division of labor, or seek ways to increase cooperative ventures. Diplomacy serves you well.	The desire for aesthetic surroundings is stronger. You may want to make your home more attractive or fall into "make nice" interactions with loved ones. Don't be too sweet!	Close ties need to be strengthened--whether with family members, pets, or any recipients of your warmth and caring. Emotional connections and support are favored.

1. Glossary for "Trends: Major Issues in Your Life" for John Luckee

Appreciate Benefits From Others

♥ Feeling optimistic and expansive may attract, but arrogance or an overbearing approach may repel. Look for the best in others, and give more generously than you take. A new love might open opportunities for spiritual or educational growth, or you might share activities in these fields with an established lover. (Jupiter (♃) square Ascendant.)

§ You can make good contacts now if you take the initiative and put yourself forward enthusiastically and ethically. You could have a tendency to take on more than you should. Optimism can lead to overdoing, so be aware. Be generous in letting others know you appreciate the benefits you receive from them. (Jupiter (♃) square Ascendant.)

♠ Be generous with your family members and let them know you appreciate them. Expansive feelings can lead to over-indulgences (food, drink, spending) that you may regret later. With that little warning in mind, this is most likely quite a good time to schedule a family celebration or to give a party. (Jupiter (♃) square Ascendant.)

Cancel Or Commit

♥ This could be a time when you'll have to decide whether to commit to a love relationship, or let it go. Frivolity or a casual approach to love just won't do now. Problems in an existing relationship can't be ignored. During this transit, you'll have to take your love seriously, or you may lose out. (Saturn (♄) square Ascendant.)

§ During this period you may find that business relationships demand that you rethink your priorities and more clearly define your responsibilities. Decisions made a few years ago may come up for testing. If they were good decisions, you can build on them. If not, you may have to change your approach. (Saturn (♄) square Ascendant.)

♠ Often a significant issue of this transit is balancing marriage with career. If you've been neglecting your home life to focus wholly on your career, this could be a time when home affairs demand your attention. Saturn is kind to those who accept responsibilities with maturity and fairness. (Saturn (♄) square Ascendant.)

Cautious Concerns

♥ It is probably best to avoid any major decisions with an emotional basis during this transit. You may be magnifying problems out of proportion. Non-sexual cuddling or a good talk with a trusted friend may help your temporary mood. Chin up. It will pass. (Saturn (♄) square Moon (♁).)

§ Emotional issues from your personal life can spill over and affect your work, or work relationships could be a source of stress. Try to be patient with yourself and others. You may need quiet time to rethink your priorities. Avoid major decisions until you do. (Saturn (♄) square Moon (♁).)

♠ Conflicts between work and homelife could cause stress. A little self-pity won't hurt if it helps you withdraw from scenes of tension to get in touch with what is really bothering you. Recognize that it may be only your temporary mood, and not reality. (Saturn (♄) square Moon (♁).)

Cautious Expansion

♥ If your love relationship is unduly restricting you, you might be tempted to break free, but are likely to take a long time thinking about it first. Conflicts with a lover over ideals can be problematic--or open your mind to new ways of thinking. (Jupiter (♃) opposite Saturn (♄).)

§ Your urge toward optimism vies with requirements to be disciplined and accept limits. The task is to achieve balance, tipped slightly in favor of expansion. Reach out toward positive accomplishments, but based on a firm foundation. Don't overextend. (Jupiter (♃) opposite Saturn (♄).)

♠ You may wish to move to a bigger home, or add to the one you have. Do so, but within your budget. Or, you may decide this is the time to go back to school. You may feel conflicted about taking a chance, but try it. Greater satisfaction in life can result. (Jupiter (♃) opposite Saturn (♄).)

Change Outmoded Structures

♥ Take a hard look at yourself for any habits or patterns of thinking that get in your way where love is concerned. This is a period of slow, transformative change. Let go of old fears, break bad habits and change what you must. Take love seriously. (Pluto (♇) square Saturn (♄).)

§ Things just can't be the way they were any more. You may be redefining your goals or priorities. A sense of loss of control may mean stress, but your best strategy is to accept that old ways must change, and work hard to make that happen positively. (Pluto (♇) square Saturn (♄).)

♠ Things or people may be changing at home, and the atmosphere is serious. It will do you little good to resist, for change is inevitable. Take a good look at what may need to be reprioritized. Get organized. Get rid of what's outmoded. Build anew. (Pluto (♇) square Saturn (♄).)

Confident Communication

♥ This is likely to be a very busy time--lots going on, probably including parties where you might meet someone special. Increased confidence makes it easier to put yourself forward. Mental rapport with lovers or significant others is important now. (Jupiter (♃) octile Mercury (♃).)

§ Speak up for yourself. Your thoughts are likely to be well-received now. It's a very busy time, with much moving around--ringing phones, faxes, letters to write. Nerves may be a bit frazzled at times. All in all, though, this is a time to promote your ideas. (Jupiter (♃) octile Mercury (♃).)

Glossary for Trends – continued

☞ This is a good time to be in school, or to pursue any study that expands your mind or increases communication skills. You might take your vacation to a distant place you'd like to learn more about. In this busy time, the caveat is to try not to take on more than you can handle. (Jupiter (♃) octile Mercury (☿).)

Confusion, Caring, Concealing or Clairvoyance

♥ Your capacity for compassion is heightened, but emotions can be confused, making you vulnerable to unbalanced savior/victim relationships. Trust intuitive hunches to slow down. Take time to clarify what may be otherwise concealed. Maintain ideals. (Neptune (♆) tri-octile Moon (♁).)

💰 A challenge of this transit can be emotional misunderstandings. Take extra effort to present yourself very clearly, and listen very carefully when others speak. If you're not sure what was said, repeat it back. Increased empathy can help you sell your idea. (Neptune (♆) tri-octile Moon (♁).)

☞ You could be experiencing some confusion about your life during this transit. Energy may be low. Best if you avoid any use of alcohol or drugs, for you are more susceptible to their effects. Follow good health habits and be good to yourself. (Neptune (♆) tri-octile Moon (♁).)

Crafty Thinking--Clever or Corrupt

♥ Clever you, communicating craftily as you wield Cupid's arrow. Or are you clamming up with uncertainty? Or competing for control? Mental stress means change is needed. Figure it out. Really listening to your lover may teach you some important things you need to learn about you. (Pluto (♇) octile Mercury (☿).)

💰 Clever you, as you communicate craftily, seeking to make your point. Or are you silently critical, to your later regret? Whatever you need to learn in terms of effective communication will surface, demanding attention. Listen! Be open, direct, curious, honest and learn all you can. (Pluto (♇) octile Mercury (☿).)

☞ Clever you, craftily thinking up a stimulating family project. Or are you corrupting the atmosphere with tension, irritability and attempts at over-control? If so, lighten up, listen, and turn your curious mind inward to probe for ways you might improve your communication skills. (Pluto (♇) octile Mercury (☿).)

💰 Economy is a keynote of this transit. Frustrations to your wish to expand should be viewed as signals that you may be over committed already. Your gains now may be unspectacular and slow, but are well-earned,

💰 Financial resources may be limited, excess work pressures may frustrate. Eliminate unnecessary expenditures, and cut superfluous tasks. With discipline and responsibility you can restructure a more satisfying future. (Saturn (♄) square Pluto (♇).)

Expanded Accomplishments

♥ Taking on more than you can handle is a downside of this transit. If you're a "swinging single" heeding this caution signal might be a good idea. For established relationships, share your plans and goals and consider whether they serve both of you. (Jupiter (♃) quincunx Jupiter (♃).)

$ Expansive activities begun a few years ago may now require adjustment. You may wish to expand more, but are already overextended. Perhaps you can handle it

☞ You may be taking courses to expand your opportunities, or volunteering for idealistic causes you support. Family needs you, too. Undue stress means you've taken on too much, and may need to readjust. A positive attitude assists whatever you're doing. (Jupiter (♃) quincunx Jupiter (♃).)

☞ You could be pretty tense these days, particularly if you're not getting much chance to do what you enjoy, perhaps because of family restrictions. Your challenge is to create a way to enjoy life without shirking duty. Be aware and be creative. (Saturn (♄) quincunx Uranus (♅).)

Opportunity Plus

♥ You're likely to be feeling optimistic and expansive, with an eye toward that which helps you get ahead in the world or enhances your reputation. Unless other transits show a focus on love, this one alone may mean that if your love interest is not assisting in your worldly goals, your attention is elsewhere. (Jupiter (♃) conjunct Midheaven.)

$ This could be a high point in your career life. Opportunity is at hand. It's a good time to look for a job or promotion. If you've been doing well, and have earned rewards, honors may come. ### Accommodating Assertion

♥ The dance between self and other is accented. You may express one extreme and your beloved the opposite. It is normal to feel ambivalence about doing what one wants versus giving in, to feel pulled between anger and compliance. But caring, sharing relationships are worth the effort. (Mars (♂) in the 7th house.)

§ Associations with working peers are emphasized. It is advisable to have both cooperative and competitive interactions. The polarities to be balanced on the job include acting/reacting, self-reliance/teamwork, and spontaneity/planning. The quest for equilibrium is strong. (Mars (♂) in the 7th house.)

⊕ Who is the instigator here? Indirect forms of anger may surface in the family. Triangulation and "set-ups" are possible.
