

Janet's Plan-its™ 2010 Easy-to-Use Astrology Calendar

CELESTIAL PLANNER by Janet Booth

There's so much more to astrology than generalized "sun-sign" forecasts! The planets are like an intricate evolving map that shows when things are happening and when we can try to make things happen. This one-of-a-kind celestial planner gives you an astrologer's "inside scoop" to assist you in charting your course through 2010.

For over 30 years, Janet Booth has interpreted the planets' movements for students of astrology, the public and a growing international clientele. She has a gift for making a complex science simple to understand by bringing her knowledge of astrology to teaching, writing, consulting and broadcasting. Janet has a BA in Behavioral Studies from Drew University and astrological certification from the National Council for Geocosmic Research. She was a speaker at the United Astrology Conferences in 2002 and 2008. Her "second family" is the Astrological Society of Connecticut. A member since 1978, Janet served as its president at the millenium.
